Multiple Best In Show & Multiple Best In Specialty Shows Ch Cordmaker Field Of Dreams CONRAD

Carl Sandburg once said, "Nothing happens unless first we dream." Those associated with Conrad truly understand the meaning of this quote, as he is truly a dream come true.

The son of the top winning Puli of all time, Aust, BIS Grand, Canadian, American BIS & BISS Champion Cordmaker Mississippi Mud or "Amish" as he is known in Puli circles, Conrad is the culmination of decades of breeding for the finest puli type and movement.

His owners, Jackie Beaudoin and Sue Huebner, have teamed up with handlers Michael and Linda Pitts to bring some of the world's finest pulik to the show ring. This endeavour led to top winning dogs such as Amish and Conrad.

Conrad is a two-time National Specialty winner (2007 & 2008) with one victory coming under an all rounder and the other under a breed specialist. Beyond all of the numerous Best In Shows and Best In Specialty Shows, Conrad fulfilled his owners' lifelong dreams by winning the herding group at the 2009 Westminster Kennel Club under Judge Mr Robert Slay. Herding expert Donna Francis awarded Conrad Best of Breed the same day.

This exciting young Puli is already closing in on his father's AKC Best In Show record and he begins 2009 as the #1 Puli, #1 Herding Dog, and #8 Dog Amongst All Breeds. Conrad's owners would like to extend their gratitude to everyone who has recognized this outstanding young dog. Also, a special thanks to Michael and Linda for your loving care and outstanding presentation of our special friends. Sue Huebner suhubner@bigpond.net.au
